CFi DNS Lookup With Key Free For PC (Updated 2022)

This is a similar and compact tool to Google's What's My IP address, and the FireFox's Location by IP address feature. It's small, fast, and easy to use. It's part of the CFI DNS package. CFI DNS Lookup features: * The possibility to hide your IP address * All of the IP addresses currently "seen" by CFI DNS Lookup are also inserted in a list Please, note: This tool replaces your old IP lookup tool and it also supports IPv6 addresses, so if you have any IPs to look up on IPv6 address basis, you should use this tool as a replacement of your old one. If you are not sure about your DNS addresses, please search the old CFI DNS Lookup application. It is still available here: CFI DNS Lookup is Copyright 2003 - 2009 by Christian Reif and should only be used and distributed under special open source licenses. All rights reserved. CFI DNS Lookup is not affiliated with CFI. After you have installed the software and registered your CFI account, you will be able to use the tool from your Account page (which is shown in the "Search" field). Click the button "Search" and specify the hostname or IP address to be translated. If the hostname you have entered is an IP address, use the drop down list "IPv4 addresses". Result: At the right side you can see the translation result. If a translation is not available for the IP address, nothing appears. If your IP address is shown, please click on "Go". If you want to hide your IP, click on "Hide IP". How do you use a Firefox Location by IP address for CFI DNS Lookup CFI DNS Lookup needs the Firefox extension 'Firefox Location by IP address' to work. Disable the location of your IP address The location feature of Firefox allows you to find your IP address quickly. If you don't want it anymore, you can disable it. The steps are similar to the ones for Internet Explorer. Open the program FireFox (version 3.5 or higher) Click on "Tools" and select "Extensions" Select "Firefox Location by IP address" from the list
